GRANT PROJECTS

Consulting Scholar for a grant project entitled “Digitization of Junior League Files.” This grant was awarded by the Hawai‘i Council for the Humanities to the Friends of ‘Iolani Palace, which operates ‘Iolani Palace, the State of Hawai‘i Museum of Monarchy History, Honolulu, Hawai‘i. The project involved the digitization of documents produced by the Junior League of Honolulu during the 1960s documenting the construction, furnishing, and utilization of ‘Iolani Palace, the official royal residence of the Hawaiian Kingdom, during the Kalākaua dynasty. I reviewed the humanities content for the project. This included writing the introduction to the ‘Iolani Palace website’s portal that links to the Junior League digitized files content section and reviewing the subject headings used for the files. 2018

“Immigration and Identity: Immigration to Hawai‘i from the Ancient Polynesians through the Twentieth Century.” I developed, researched, and wrote a seventy-page educational curriculum for the Friends of ‘Iolani Palace. Sponsored by a grant from the Ward Village Foundation (funded by The Howard Hughes Corporation). 2015-2016
